

Rajasthan Lifestyle & Jaipur – 4 (004/017)

CD ID (quote this number in your order)	004	017
NUMBER OF IMAGES	8	8

PRICE (this is what you pay us for ordinary delivery)	SINGLE-USE/PERSONAL LICENSE	MULTIPLE-USE/COMMERCIAL LICENSE
INR	790.00	2400.00
US $	17.50	53.30
UK £	9.85	30.00
EURO	14.30	43.60

EXPRESS DELIVERY (add this amount to your payment for express delivery)
US $	45.00
UK £	25.00
EURO	36.35
INR	2000.00
INR (delivery within India only)	750.00

Camels frolic at the annual Pushkar Mela held every November.

01040EH1990S01

A proud owner shows off his well-decorated camel, which is up for sale like thousands of others here. Owners go to great lengths to decorate camels with special periphernalia.

01040EH1990S02

The Tripolia Gate, that leads to the palace complexes behind it. The gate is situated in the midst of Jaipur's old commercial areas.

01033ACE2002S01

Pilgrims at the Pushkar Fair prepare an early evening meal of baatis, small round balls of flour which are baked on a slow fire fueled by dried cowdung cakes.

01040DE1990S02

Elephant's pass the Trident hotel on their way to the Amber fort where they will be used to ferry tourists to the fort

01033CE2002S01

A Rajasthani woman caught in one of her thoughtful moments. The group of ladies is waiting their turn to bathe at the Pushkar Lake, considered very sacred by Hindus.

01040DE1990S03

A woman walks into her mansion like home in the Old city of Amber

01062ACE1990S01

The Samode Palace. Its interiors and ambience will hold you spellbound

1036ACE2002S01